

GIULIO BARBIERI

ABOUT COMPANY

- The company was established in Italy, 1989. They started as a small family business in Ferrara. Now they have over a hundred employees.
- The company primarily focuses on portable structures and outdoor furniture, offering a wide range of products.

SUSTAINABILITY

- However, one of their main products are pergolas.
- Pergolas are outdoor structures with poles and flat roofs on top, giving shade and making gardens look nice.

- In addition to pergolas, Giulio Barbieri has introduced e-bike charging stations.
- Charging stations are made from 100% recyclable materials; they also have an aluminum structure so they are durable and immune to corrosion.
- Aluminum is also a reusable metal.

“VASSALLI BAKERING”

01.

- Vassalli baking is a family led company, based in Ferrara.
- They have been baking fresh bread for decades.
- They specialize in making pastries from raw dough.

SUSTAINABILITY

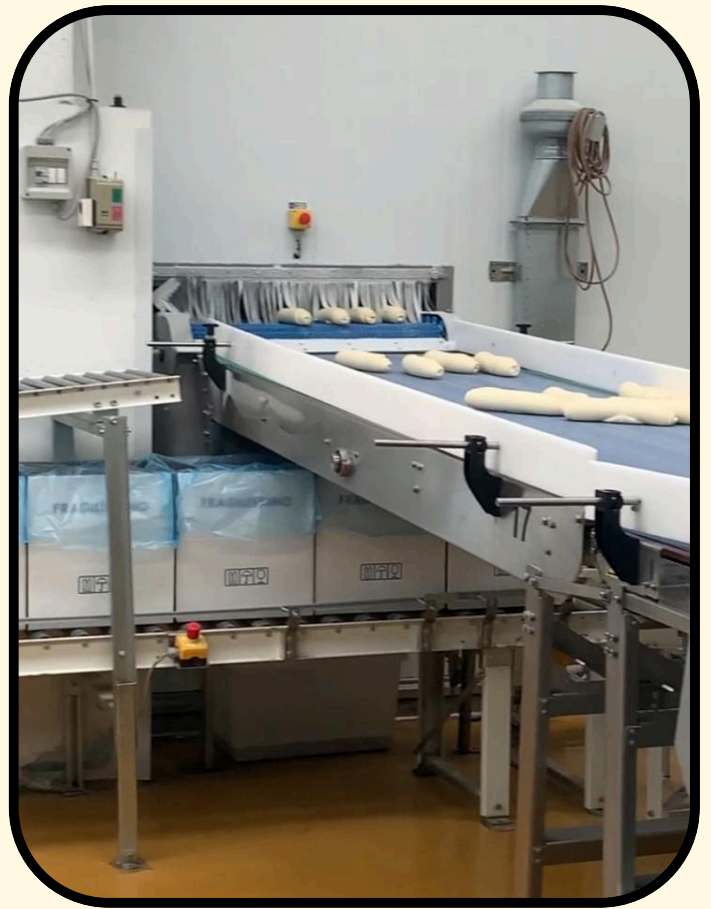

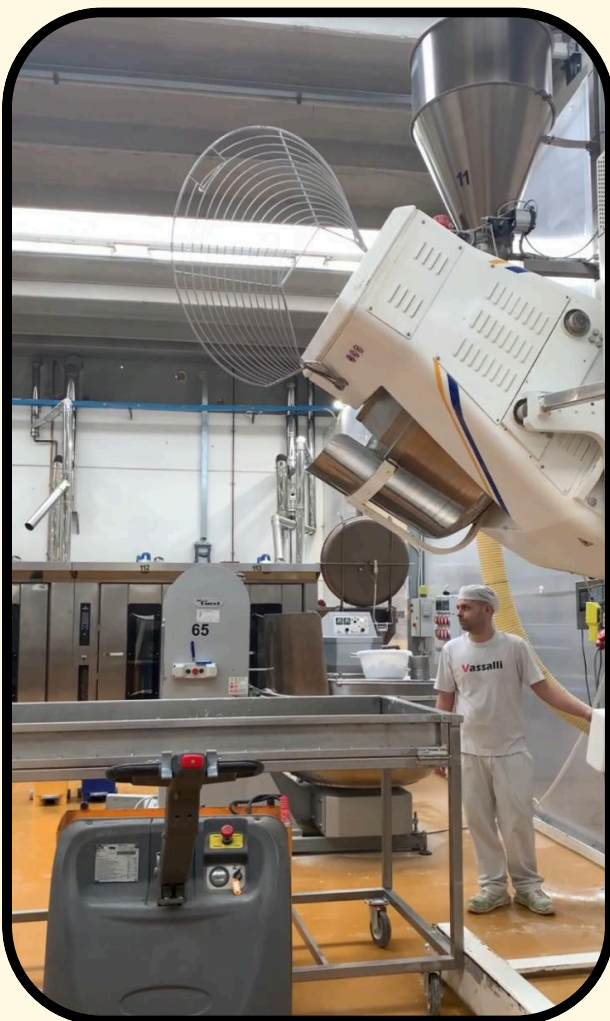

02.

- Vassalli baking is an eco-friendly bakery.
 - They use prehistoric wheat grown by ancestors thousands of years ago.
 - The malloco flour, from the prehistoric wheat, has a very high nutritional value, more protein and fiber than the wheat grown today.
 - It's good for diabetics.

- They make around 12 tons of product in one shift on 3 state-of-the-art lines, using the latest technology.
- Everything made by the company comes from Italy, and they use high quality ingredients that are 100% organic.
- Their packaging is made of plastic containing 50% of recyclable material.

SUMMARY

03.

- The company owner, Raffaele Vassalli, showed us around the company. He was very kind and welcoming.
- Each one of us got two pizza samples, which were really good.
- These are both amazing ecological companies with a lot of history and bright future.
